What Are Cookies?

A cookie is a small text file placed on your device when you visit our website. Cookies help our website remember your actions and preferences over time, so you don't have to re-enter them each visit.

How We Use Cookies

We use cookies to make our website work properly, to understand how visitors use it, and — where you consent — to support our marketing activity.

The Cookies We Use

- Necessary Cookies: required for the website to function (e.g. navigation, security). These cannot be switched off.
- Preference Cookies: remember settings such as region or display preferences.
- Statistic (Analytics) Cookies: help us understand how visitors interact with our site, via Google Analytics and Google Tag Manager.
- Marketing Cookies: used to deliver and measure relevant advertising, including via TikTok and Meta (Facebook/Instagram).

Consent

When you first visit our website, you will be shown a cookie banner powered by Cookiebot. You can accept, reject, or customise which categories of cookie you allow. You can change your preferences at any time by clicking the Cookiebot icon or link in our website footer.

Third-Party Cookies

Some cookies are set by trusted third parties when you visit our site, including Google Analytics, Google Tag Manager, and our advertising partners (TikTok, Meta). Each third party has its own privacy and cookie notices, which we encourage you to review.

Managing Cookies via Your Browser

You can also manage or delete cookies directly through your browser settings:

- Google Chrome: support.google.com/chrome/answer/95647
- Safari: support.apple.com/en-ie/guide/safari/sfri11471/mac

Note that blocking cookies may affect the functionality of our website.

Changes to This Policy

We will update this policy as our use of cookies changes. Please check back periodically.
